Card Holder Consumer Protection:

The truth is, what we don't know can hurt us. As we continue to make advancements in technology, fraud is becoming increasingly complex. Every day, thieves find new ways to get your personal information, and, by any means possible. Email, social media sites, even your smartphone are all susceptible targets for these criminals. We know the importance of safeguarding your information and offer many products and services that will help protect your account from becoming compromised. In addition to these services, you can also help fight fraud by being aware of what the potential threats are and taking steps to protect your information.

Remember, neither The State Bank of Table Rock or Shazam card processing would communicate issues regarding your account or ask you to verify personal information via text message.

NEVER:

- *Give personal information on the phone, either verbally or by text, Internet, or over email; unless you know whom you are dealing with.
- *Click on links sent in unsolicited emails, or text messages.
- *Use obvious passwords, such as birth dates or mother's maiden name.

ALWAYS:

- *Keep your anti-virus and anti-spyware software up to date.
- *Shred all financial documents and paperwork before discarding them.
- *Protect your SSN. Only give it out if it's necessary or ask to use another form of ID.
- *Keep your personal information in a secure place at your home.
- *Monitor your financial statements regularly and notify your financial institution of suspicious activity.
- *Monitor your credit report regularly for unauthorized purchases or debts.

Protection is Key. Protecting your information is the greatest weapon you have in preventing fraud.
