In May of 2020, Katherine Miller of Tecumseh started 57designs. With the intention of painting just door hangers, it quickly changed in September when she purchased her laser machine. 57designs now offers custom "everything": laser engraving, signs, engraved leather items, large laser cut words, etc! The possibilities are endless! Katherine's favorite items are hand written recipes, hand written notes, or even just a signature engraved into a material of your choice.

Check out 57designs VIP group on Facebook.
